

Emoji Matching Activity- Family Life Education Links

Objective: Learning how to express and identify emotions is important for social development. This activity allows students to move around and interact through scenarios with 7 basic emotions. It can easily be played outdoors.

Suggestions for integrated learning opportunities:

Add fundamental movement i.e., crab walk when moving between emojis

Grade 1

A2.2 Recognize that everyone has likes and dislikes.

A2.3 Recognize that everyone has feelings.

A3. Reflecting, responding, and analyzing.

A3.3 Identify and record some of their likes and dislikes.

A3.4 Identify and name some common feelings.

Grade 2

A2.2 Recognize the importance of expressing their feelings.

A2.3 Recognize that they have choices in the way they express their feelings.

A3.1 Identify some of their interests, activities, and preferences.

B3.5 Describe some of the ways they express friendship with others.

Grade 3

A2.2 Explain why it is important for people to think about how they express their feelings.

A3.1 Identify some of their personal characteristics and those of their classmates.

A3.2 Describe some differences in the way in which people express feelings.