

Toby the Happy Tooth

Toby the Tooth lived inside Max's mouth. He was a bright, shiny tooth who loved to smile!

Every morning and night, Max brushed Toby with his blue toothbrush. "Scrub, scrub, scrub!" sang Toby. It made him feel fresh and strong.

Toby had lots of friends—Molly the Molar, Sammy the Canine, and Benny the Bicuspid. They all loved when Max ate crunchy apples, carrots, and yummy cheese. "Hooray for healthy food!" they cheered.

But one day, Max ate too many sticky candies and forgot to brush before bed. Uh-oh! Sneaky Sugar Bugs came creeping in. "Let's build a little home right here," they giggled, sticking to Toby's side.

Toby felt sad. He wasn't as shiny anymore.

The next morning, Max noticed Toby looked a little dull. "Oh no! Time to brush extra well!" Max said.

Scrub, scrub, scrub! Away went the Sugar Bugs. Toby smiled big and bright again.

From that day on, Max always brushed his teeth and chose healthy snacks. And Toby? He stayed the happiest, strongest tooth around!

The End.
